

Proactive approaches to build a child's positive behaviors

Clear Expectations

Use visuals like schedules or timers to let them know what their day will look like.

Offer Choices

Share control by giving choices that are clear and concise for items or activities

Offer Rewards

Reward the child with their preferred items/activities throughout their day to reinforce positive behaviors

Offer Support

Provide immediate assistance when the child is having difficulty and give an easier task. Give descriptive praise when they do the task independently.
